GOVERNOR CAMPBELL INVADES The Western Reserve--- He Holds Two Great Meetings in One Day...Big Meetings at Wellington and Norwaik...Two Very Bright, Off-Hand Speeches--- No Posing, No Solemn Airs-Points Well

[From the Pittsburg Dispatch, Rep.] Norwalk, O., Sept 28.—Governor Campbell commonced the week on the stump with a speech at Wellington this afternoon. He is versatile and witty, and in this hot bed of Republicanism succeeded nicely in pleasing even the chronic kickers. The meeting was held in the operationse, which will held about 1,200 people. The building was nacked and some were turn. building was packed and some were turned away. Delegations came in from Speneer and other rearry towns. The Governor didn't speak long, intending to save his or didn't speak long, intending to save his strength for the open air effort at Norwalk in the evening.

Mr. Campbell is holding many of his best things for the joint debate at Ada next week. There are many who believe that he will get the bost of sic Kinley in a rough and tumble set to in the same ring, Campbell has a wonderful knack of adapting himself suddenly to new conditions. In the audience at Wellington were a number of students from Oberlin College. It was a good natured surprise to the Governor, for he had understood they educaternor, for he had understood they educated only Republicans in that institution. The boys were in a gay humor, and gave a college yell for the Chief Executive in grhien they concluded he would be nominated for the Presidency in 1802.

WARTS A FEW CAMPRELL DELEGATES. When the Governor commenced speaking he hand that his audience would see to it that the Oberlin boys would be sent to the national convention as delegates. This brought down the house with a large sized

The Mayor is a Democrat, and the Councils are also Democratic. Harlon Stewart, a candidate for the State Sciente, says the Republican prestige is slowly being wiped disantished with the farm, they are not complaining openly, but in secret they have decided to limite the ticket. McKinley was in this town several weeks ago. Mr. Stewart states that he offended a number of English voters by his uncomplimentary allusions to the British Isles.

Norwalk bases portable platform, which is used for open air meetings. It was placed in the square in front of the Court House, and an audience of between 3,000 and 4,000 surrounded it and listened to the Governor's speech. Delegations came in from Fremont, Clyde, Bellevue and Monroeville. The citizens decorated the town neatly with the Stars and Stripes in honor of the event. The hand played "The Campbells are Coming," and when the Governor stepped to the front he was

While the Governor was talking the hour clock commenced to strike. He stopped and said: "I think the bell is sounding and said: I the knell of protection. (Laughter.) He stated further: "The time was when the dead were to be buried in a woolen shaw! Now the Republicans have taxed the shroud, the coffin and the tombstone, which recites the virtues of the deceased.

A JOKE ON THE TUMBLER. A tumbler fell off the rating of the plat-form and broke. The Governor remarked that it was pressed glass, and couldn't stand a Democratic speech. Continuing he said: "In the glass helt of Ohio you Continuing he said: "In the glass belt of Ohio you don't find many American workmen. IVoice, 'You do.' [Laughter.] It is time the farmer is allying himself to some body who is not trying to take away all he has. [Cries of good]. There can only be two parties, vote for one. [Cheers.] I am not parading these Republican counties for fun. [Howls] 'We are with you.'"

Someone wanted to know why wool had come down. The Governor said that the gone down. The Governor said that this was the universal result of an increase in the tariff. Without a tariff wool would bring 33 cents per pound. In Canada, Ohio's best clip today sells for 28 cents.
